Bernhard has a wealth of international experience including CTO in a publicly listed company and leader roles in both management consulting and professional service firms. As an Operating Partner at Merryck & Co his focus is on the growth and expansion of accounts across Europe with A specific focus on the UK, Switzerland and Germany. A certified coach himself, Bernhard is also a Merryck Mentor and combines both his coaching and business experience to support executive leaders.

Bernhard believes in developing high performing teams and individual executives using a 'grow the whole person to grow the whole leader' approach that empowers individuals to bring their authentic self to work. His experience in executive search, having placed over 100 CXOs, gives him unique insight into succession and onboarding as well as career counselling.
